Wednesday Night Prayer & Bible Study—7:00 PM.

Our in-depth studies in Daniel continue, with the account of the "Three Holy Children." The wrath of a King is great and terrifying (Prov. 16:14)—but is also subject to folly (Prov. 14:17), and here it plays a significant role in God being glorified through a fearless act of civil disobedience (Acts 5:29) by the three young men.

Today's Verse for Reflection:

"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever."—Rev. 11:15

John Calvin: Christ in all of Scripture (1535)

He [Christ] is Isaac, the beloved Son of the Father who was offered as a sacrifice, but nevertheless did not succumb to the power of death.

He is Jacob the watchful shepherd, who has such great care for the sheep which he guards.

He is the good and compassionate brother Joseph, who in his glory was not ashamed to acknowledge his brothers, however lowly and abject their condition.

He is the great sacrificer and bishop Melchizedek, who has offered an eternal sacrifice once for all.

He is the sovereign lawgiver Moses, writing his law on the tables of our hearts by his Spirit.

He is the faithful captain and guide Joshua, to lead us to the Promised Land.

He is the victorious and noble king David, bringing by his hand all rebellious power to subjection.

He is the magnificent and triumphant king Solomon, governing his kingdom in peace and prosperity.

He is the strong and powerful Samson, who by his death has overwhelmed all his enemies.

This is what we should in short seek in the whole of Scripture: truly to know Jesus Christ, and the infinite riches that are comprised in Him and are offered to us by Him from God the Father. If one were to sift thoroughly the Law and the Prophets, He would not find a single word which would not draw and bring us to Him… Therefore, rightly does Saint Paul say in another passage that He would know nothing except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.
